

Carload Food Sale Continues

Clark officials today announced that their great Annual Carload Food Sale will continue for four more days due to the terrific response on the part of thousands of customers and friends.

The continuation food sale will offer a completely new but equally impressive list of fine foods at really tremendous money saving prices.

All departments of all Clark Markets are co-operating in the big sale to bring even greater savings on fine foods. The carload food sale will end at the close of business this coming Sunday.

CARLOAD FOOD SALE CONTINUES at all Clark markets, including the one at Hawthorne ave. and Pacific Coast highway.

Mansker In Training

Lonnie E. Mansker, 3531 W. 187th st., has started the year-long National Guard course of weekend training which will lead to his commissioning as a second lieutenant.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Braun, of 22733 So. Main St. announce the birth of a son, Robert Joseph, weighing 7 pounds and 4 ounces.

Volunteers Now Total 100 Members

The Volunteers for Children have announced that they have now a total of 100 members.

They have set their full schedule and work is progressing according to plan, said Mrs. Virginia Stoddard, but more members are still needed. "This takes the work of all of us," she said.

They have established a bulletin board in Harbor General hospital to keep the members as well as the public posted on the activities of the group.

Mrs. Jane Billingsley said that there is need not only for women volunteers, but also for men.

Jack Hudson, who went to the hospital for the first time this week, said that he was surprised to find how helpful a man could be in the wards. There are always toys to be fixed and boys to talk with, he said.

Individuals interested in joining the group may call FA. 8-1487.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Setting, of 22508 Gaycrest Ave., announce the birth of a son, Richard Michael, weighing 7 pounds and 5 ounces.

Date Set For Sentencing

Ronald W. Lindstedt, 26, of 5006 Sepulveda, who was booked for indecent exposure, was found innocent of that charge last week but was found guilty instead of section 650 1/2 of the penal code ("willfully and wrongfully" committing an act which "openly outrages public decency").

He will come up for probation and sentencing November 22 in South Bay Municipal Court.
